Pristine Wilderness Alpine Meadows Wilderness Routes

Thrill to River Travel!

Drift and Paddle the Cariboo River along the skirts of stunning peaks leading you to the spectacular Cariboo Falls.

Relax in the Tranquility!

Slender lakes and marshes team with wildlife. The Bowron Lakes Chain is a naturalist's paradise with diverse ecosystems, rich with moose, grizzly and black bear, beavers, eagles, osprey and a myria of waterfowl. Paddle on our 8-day trip around the entire chain or sample the lakes on our 3-day West Side Adventure.

Cameron Ridge Hike

Stunning Views

Sheer drops to the deepest fjord lake in North America.

Expansive Meadows

Rolling subalpine meadows are surrounded by the peaks of the Caribooos.

This relatively easy 3-day hike has little elevation gain as you travel across scenic terrain.

1861 Gold Rush Pack Trail Hike

Alpine Ridge Walks Wildflowers History

Snowshoe Mountain, Antler Mountain, Breakneck and Horseshoe Nail Ridge are just some of the colourful places you will hike on our 3-day trip. In 1861 "Doc" Keithley travelled this route and started the biggest gold rush in British Columbia history. Today it is your path to solitude and adventure.

Winter Backcountry Tours

Bowron Lakes Cariboo Mountains Ski and Snowshoe Adventures

Whitegold Adventures
We Take You There!
www.whitegold.ca

The lakes and mountains of the Cariboo are beautifully desolate in winter. However, many creatures leave their story. Otters drag deep trenches with their bellies through the snow, moose wander through the forests and across the lakes. Wolves take advantage of the light snow cover on the lakes to travel extensively. These animals, and more, leave their tracks to be read like a book by you and your guide.

Ski the Bowron Chain

Spend four days out on the Bowron Lake Chain in the winter. The mountains are fabulous, dressed in their snowy mantle. By day we travel in whatever weather nature sends us. Your guide takes you safely through the best terrain making sure that you travel over the strongest ice. In the evening you relax on your bunk by a warm stove, go for a moonlight ski. Enjoy the brilliance of the star-filled sky or perhaps enjoy the dance of the Northern Lights.

Unparalleled Wilderness!

Day 1 takes us up over two portages and across two lakes to reach a cabin on a small bluff overlooking Indianpoint Lake and the associated mountains.

Remote Destinations!

Day 2 takes us up the Indianpoint Lagoon and over the snow laden Isaac portage. This is followed by a glorious ski down the middle of Isaac Lake. We pass the base of Wolverine Mountain and arrive at our evening home deep in the Cariboo Mountain trench.

Exhilarating Experience!

Day 3 sees us skiing back on our old trails (if they're still showing!) enjoying the return view and admiring the tracks of animals who've chosen to follow our well beaten path rather than use precious energy making their own.

Day 4 and we ski back to civilization with long glides back down over the portages, which offer gentle downhill relief to tired travellers.

Due to the unique nature of this environment, the number of participants is limited to a maximum of 4 per trip. Previous experience cross country skiing is an asset but not necessary.

"I don't think I've ever travelled anywhere for four days and not seen another person. This has been a very special experience."
